

Support

The families of Anna Mahler and Sol LeWitt generously provide basic funding as well as the use of the studios and connecting properties. However, our ambitious program supporting artists, curators and writers relies on the gifts of individuals as well as grants from foundations and other organisations.

The donations of Friends and Patrons directly support our residents as they develop their practices in the unique surroundings of the Mahler and LeWitt Studios. As a small scale organisation we are able to offer you a close and engaged relationship with all of our activities. Every year we open the Studios for the Festival dei Due Mondi and invite our supporters to share the extraordinary atmosphere that your donations afford our residents.

In recognition of your support we offer a number of benefits, however, the most significant benefit is supporting the development of the residency programme itself.

“Spoleto has snatched Time from its usual processional march and laid it out like a vast open book of human endeavour which for the artist, is of great advantage.”

Rob Sherwood, AMA artist in residence

Become a “Friend” from €325

- Receive an annual, specially commissioned artist edition.
- Copies of our publications from the current residencies.
- Exclusive invitations to our events in Spoleto, London or New York.

Patrons are key supporters who participate in a close relationship with all of our activities at the Studios. They receive all of the benefits of a Friend and are offered opportunities for bespoke events such as studio visits with previous and future residents. Patrons are kept informally updated on project development and can participate in a regular dialogue with the directors.

Sponsor an Award

Benefactors will be offered every opportunity to develop a close appreciation of the residents’ work that benefits from their Award. For more information please contact guy@mahler-lewitt.org.
